HISTORY

The National Slovak Society (NSS) is the oldest Slovak Society in the United States. It was founded in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on February 16, 1890 by Peter V. Rovnianek, Rev. Louis Novomeský and Anton S. Ambrose. In 1913, at the Society's 11th Convention a resolution was adopted providing for the Young Folks' Circle. The Society publishes its official organ, a bi-weekly newspaper National News (Národné Noviny), and an annual Národný Kalendár.

COLLECTION

The materials of the National Slovak Society consist of correspondence, minutes, financial, insurance, legal and real estate records of the Society. These materials have been divided into the following sections:
